

Infant and Early Childhood Trauma: Core Concepts and Tools to Build Resilience

We invite you to join us as a key partner in the 11th NWCF Forum – Infant and Early Childhood Trauma: Core Concepts and Tools to Build Resilience – taking place on Tuesday, February 6, 2018, at the Washington State Convention Center.

The NWCF Forum brings together stakeholders in child welfare – researchers, practitioners, teachers, public servants, parents and more – to share exciting new research, learn from each other, and forge partnerships to maximize our collective impact on our community's children. This year's event will be keynoted by Dr. Chandra Ghosh Ippen, renowned speaker and expert in complex childhood trauma.

With capacity for more than 500 attendees, the Forum is a unique opportunity to engage with an extensive network of community leaders, child-welfare experts, influential nonprofits and policymakers in lively discussion to address one of our region's most pressing youth-related issues.
