

NW Children's Foundation

Presents our 2023 Forum

Healing-Centered Practices and Childhood Trauma

Reimagining Ourselves and Transforming Our Work with Children and Families

We invite you to join us as a key partner in the 2023 NWCF Forum – Healing-Centered Practices & Childhood Trauma: Reimagining Ourselves and Transforming Our Work with Children and Families – taking place virtually on Thursday, February 9, 2023. We are thrilled to feature author and social scientist Dr. Shawn Ginwright as our keynote speaker. An expert in working with youth who have experienced inequity, adversity and trauma, Ginwright contends that healing – both on an individual and collective level – is the most important aspect of social change.

The Forum is a unique opportunity to engage with an important and timely topic, and to be recognized by an extensive network of community leaders, child-welfare experts, influential nonprofits, and policymakers. This year's event will be held virtually, and we anticipate expanding the audience beyond the 1,200 participants at our 2022 Forum.
